I support the requirement to maintain Morse code testing for the General and Extra class Amateur Service licenses. Additionally technical testing needs to be strengthened for these two classes.

Last - stop the instant retesting at the VE examination sessions.